HUNDREDS SEARCH FOR THEIR BODIES

E. B. Bruen, Richmond Minister, and His Fiancee Are Drowned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Cumberland, Md., October 9.—While hundreds searched all last night and to-day, the bodies of Rev. E. B. Bruen and Miss Sallie Shannon had not been recovered up to a late hour this evening.

Mr. Bruen boarded at the home of Miss Shannon, at Romney, W. Va., and yesterday started for Three Churches, ten miles distant, where Mr. Bruen was to preach. When they failed to return home a searching party started out, and after searching from midnight until daylight without finding any trace of either the vehicle or its occupants, came to the conclusion that the couple had eloped to a Maryland town and been married. Later in the day the buggy and the horse, the latter dead, were found two miles below the ford of the South Branch of the Potomac, and then it became certain that the couple had been drowned.

Mr. Bruen was thirty years old, and this was his first appointment. Miss Shannon was twenty, and belonged to one of the most prominent families in Hampshire county, W. Va. The whole countryside turned out this afternoon to assist in dragging the river.

Mr. Bruen formerly lived in Richmond. He and Miss Shannon, it is said, were soon to have been married.

SKREEN DELIVERS HIS ULTIMATUM

Reiterates Determination to Put Down Vote-Buying in Wise.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Norton, Va., October 9.—Ezra T. Carter and J. H. Catron, candidates for the State Senate from the Second District on the Democratic and Republican tickets, respectively, spoke at Wise to-day, Catron beginning at 11 o'clock and concluding about 12, and Carter beginning at 1 o'clock and concluding at 2:30.

Carter was introduced by County Chairman Bruce. The real sensation of the occasion came at the conclusion of Carter's speech, when Judge Skeen arose and rapped for order. He said that some time ago he announced from the bench his intention of prosecuting vote-buying and seeing in the fair elections. "It has reached my ears," continued the judge, "that I was merely putting up a bluff." He paused, and gathering emphasis, fairly shouted:

"I want to say in the presence of these voters that this is no bluff game of mine. This term of court will go in session till after the election, at which time I expect to have summoned before the grand jury every candidate for office and every supposed deputy that I can find, and have them tell me how much money they spent, and where and how it was spent. I am determined to put down vote-buying in this county, no matter how long it takes, nor what it costs. I can sit on this bench till Christmas, and am prepared to do it, if that length of time is required to locate and convict the guilty parties."

Judge Skeen was cheered loudly when he delivered his ultimatum. Something like 150 people heard both political speeches and the remarks of Judge Skeen.

COLD CAUSED A WRECK

Mrs. Mitchell Has Weary Search for Relief. Physicians State No Hope For Recovery.

Morganton, N. C.—"My health had been a wreck for years," says Mrs. C. C. Mitchell, of this city.

"When I was 16 years old I commenced to suffer. I caught cold, and it went into a fever.

I stayed in bad health, and though I used all kinds of medicine, I got no relief until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Cardui cured me. It is the best medicine I ever used. I cannot praise it enough.

Then, some time ago, I was taken down again very bad. The doctors all said I could not live, and they gave me up. I used Cardui and was greatly relieved. Now I am entirely well.

Cardui is a good medicine and worth its weight in gold! I will keep it in my home all the time, as I do not want to be without it."

Do you wonder why Cardui is so popular, when it has cured so many sick and ailing women, after other medicines had failed?

The reason is that it goes to the spot that needs attention and does the work that is required.

All women need Cardui, the woman's tonic—at times. When you do, will you try it? Please do.

CASE WILL GO TO SUPREME COURT

Certain Questions Involved in Petersburg Bank Indictments Up for Decision.

DEATH OF FORMER MAYOR

Fall Rally of Methodist Sunday Schools—Other Petersburg News.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 105 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., October 9.

Before Charles Hall Davis and Carter R. Bishop, defendants in the Appomattox Trust Company cases, are brought to trial, if they ever are, in the Hustings Court, a very important phase of the cases is to be passed upon by the Court of Appeals, and if that court sustains the contentions of the defendants the prosecutions here will be virtually ended.

Judge Mullen to-day, in two carefully considered decisions, read from the bench, overruled, first, the motion of the Appellate, and if that court sustains the contentions of the defendants the prosecutions here will be virtually ended.

Before the decisions were read, however, Commonwealth's attorney asked and was granted permission to nolle prosequi about 350 of the counts, covering certain charges in the big indictment. This will leave about 155 counts in the indictment unaffected by this action.

Colonel James Mann, of counsel for Mr. Davis, explained some misapprehension or misunderstanding under the court's ruling on the motion to discharge, but the court held that there was no ambiguity in the decision, that the motion was overruled on the ground that the defendant was not entitled to discharge.

A great deal of discussion followed on various points. The court was anxious to set as early a day as possible for the trial under indictment No. 10, and at last Monday, October 30, was fixed for the trial on the merits of the case, Mr. Bishop electing to be tried separately.

Later, however, after conference, counsel for Mr. Davis asked for a continuance of this particular case until the November term, for the sole reason, as explained, that within the intervening time they might get the one great question involved, that of former discharge, before the Court of Appeals decision. This could be done by habeas corpus, it being claimed that Mr. Davis, having been discharged on former indictments of offenses charged in indictment No. 10, is illegally held in custody. The court granted the continuance, and the case will be brought before the Supreme Court without delay.

There were six other indictments pending against the accused, alleging larceny. These the Commonwealth's attorney nolle prosequed. There is also one alleging false statement of the bank's condition to the Corporation Commission. This was continued over until November.

As Carter Bishop was indicted for the same offenses, and mostly jointly with Mr. Davis, the same pleas and motions were filed in his case as in that of Mr. Davis, and continuance was granted him until November.
